The agency was to be for two years with the option for either party to determine it at the end of the first year. The agency was in fact carried on at No. 2, Cooper Street, Manchester, and 63, Chancery Lane, London, for the two years provided by the agreement and it continued after that period had expired. While it was still continuing Mr. Bates died. This was in June of 1907. At the time of his death negotiations for a new agency agreement were in contemplation and it had been agreed that the arrangement come to in 1904 should continue in force until a new agreement should be made.

Disputes had arisen between Mr. Knott and Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis had
